

Inclusive Communication Assistant

Hours per week

4- 10 hours per month (flexible)

Location

Include.org is a vibrant new charity based in Redhill, Surrey. Aside from initial visits, this role could mainly involve working from home.

We are looking for proactive, imaginative and committed people to join our fun-loving team in making a real difference to the lives of people with communication challenges.

Description

The Include Choir is made up of people with and without learning or communication disabilities – we aim to reduce social isolation and improve communication for all.

This role is ideal for anyone interested in communication, equality and accessibility or health / social care.

You will assist the Director in creating accessible, meaningful documents for people who need support to understand. You will have the chance to help gather feedback and data using creative methods & inclusive communication.

This opportunity will help you develop:

- Knowledge of communication support packages
- Problem solving/Creativity
- Inclusive communication skills
- Understanding of speech & language therapy interventions
- Disability Rights awareness
- Project development and management

Communication Disability Awareness training will be provided as part of the induction. Regular supervision and out of pocket expenses will also be provided.

About you

What do you need for this role?

Essential: An inclusive attitude, ability to prioritise and multitask, time management skills, willingness to learn, sense of humour, ability to plan and work independently, good English language skills

Desirable: Experience in working with people with learning or communication disabilities, experience of accessible information and visual supports, experience of using Word / images, interest in speech and language therapy

www.include.org

includechoir@include.org

www.facebook.com/includechoir/

@includeorg

<https://youtu.be/-MFBolJ0IU0>