Location

Include.org is a vibrant new charity based in Redhill, Surrey. Volunteers would need to regularly attend rehearsals at Redhill Baptist Church on Wednesday evenings

Description

We are looking for proactive, imaginative and committed people to join us in making a real difference to the lives of people with communication challenges.

The Include Choir is made up of people with and without learning or communication disabilities – we aim to reduce social isolation and improve communication for all.

This role is perfect for anyone who loves photography or video-making and is passionate about the use of images and film to tell a story. Your role is to record parts of rehearsals and performances, with the potential to work with choir members to teach them skills. Your work will be shared on our forthcoming website and social media sites.

This opportunity will assist you in developing:

- Confidence / interpersonal skills
- Teamwork
- Problem solving/Creativity
- Inclusive communication skills
- A platform for your work

Communication Disability Awareness training will be provided as part of the induction. Regular supervision and out of pocket expenses will also be provided.

What do you need for this role?

About you

Essential: An inclusive attitude, ability to prioritise and multitask, time management skills, willingness to learn, sense of humour, ability to plan and work independently

Desirable: Experience in photography, experience of working with people with learning or communication disabilities, own equipment (though equipment can be provided if necessary)
