

Volunteer Videographer

Hours per week

Wednesdays 7.30 -9pm, in Redhill/Reigate, plus time for editing and some performances (for which expenses provided) –flexible hours can be agreed

Location

The Include Choir is part of a vibrant new charity based in Redhill, Surrey. Volunteers would need to regularly attend rehearsals at Hatchlands Primary School hall on Wednesday evenings

We are looking for proactive, imaginative and committed people to join our fun-loving team and make a difference to the lives of people with communication challenges.

Description

The Include Choir is made up of people with and without learning or communication disabilities – we aim to reduce social isolation and improve communication for all.

This role is perfect for anyone who loves video-making and is passionate about the use of film to tell a story. Your role is to record parts of rehearsals and performances, and edit afterwards -with the potential to work with choir members to teach them skills. Your work will be shared on our website and social media sites. It will also be used on our Communication Aids to help people with communication difficulties

This opportunity will help you develop:

- Confidence / interpersonal skills
- Teamwork
- Problem solving/Creativity
- Inclusive communication skills
- Awareness of confidentiality issues
- A platform for your work

FREE Communication Disability Awareness training will be provided as part of the induction. Regular supervision and out of pocket expenses will also be provided.

What do you need for this role?

Essential: An inclusive attitude, ability to prioritise and multitask, time management skills, willingness to learn, sense of humour, ability to plan and work independently

Desirable: Experience in photography, experience of working with people with learning or communication disabilities, own equipment (though equipment can be provided if necessary)
