

Volunteer with Include.org

Film makers / Video Editors: Weekly or project-based

Who is Include.org?

Include is a charity whose aim is to improve the lives and rights of those with speaking and communication disabilities. We provide invaluable services to many people in Surrey whatever their ability

We provide inclusive community activities for people with or without communication difficulties, promoting awareness in the community. We also deliver training to organisations on how to better support people with communication difficulties.

Why do we need film-makers?

Video is a valuable and effective communication tool - for our members, and for the charity, and so we rely on a team of skilled video makers and video volunteers to help our members tell their story and have their voices heard.

We are looking for proactive, imaginative and committed people with video creation skills to join us and make a difference to the lives of people with communication challenges.

What are the roles?

There are a range of filming and editing opportunities available in person or remote, regular or project based.

The Award-Winning Include Choir is made up of people with and without learning or communication disabilities; to raise awareness of inclusive communication The Include Choir sings, signs and shares weekly song videos on our YouTube Channel.

As well as our weekly shorts, our Video creation team make creative song videos.

Beyond the musical content, we also regularly need compelling explainer videos. These are shared throughout the year, but particularly during November and December as part of our annual fundraising campaigns.

Who do we need?

We are looking for proactive, imaginative and committed people with filming or video-editing experience.

This role is perfect for anyone with a passion for using video to tell a story and to give people a voice.

What is the time commitment?

We have a team of editors and photographers - the more we have, the lighter the workload. We are currently looking for people who can commit to creating our 1 minute long weekly videos once a month, and are willing to join the team creating our Campaign Videos.

What is the benefit of volunteering with us?

Volunteering weekly, or fortnightly or on a project basis is a great way to gain experience alongside a dedicated, fun-loving team whilst helping to make a difference to people at the greatest risk of isolation. Your work will be shared on website and social media platforms, and in addition to the technical skills, you will experience the joys of working alongside a great team.

What are the skills needed?

Essential:

- An inclusive attitude.
- Able to prioritise and multitask.
- Time management skills & ability to work to deadlines
- A willingness to learn.
- Able to plan and work independently
- Able to work as part of a team
- Experience in filming or using video-editing software

Desirable:

- Own editing software
- Experience in film-making.
- Experience of working with people with learning or communication disabilities.
- Your own equipment (though some equipment can be provided if necessary).
