

Quiz about staying safe online

1. True or false: Some emails are fake to trick people into sharing important information like their bank details.

2. True or False: It is ok to share bank passwords with friends and other people.

3. Yes or No: Someone online says you won a prize, but you never signed up for it. Should you click on the link?

4. Yes or No: I got a message saying that I need to pay for my parcel to be delivered to me. Should I pay?

5- You get an email asking for your bank details. What should you do?

- a) Delete the email, find my bank's number on google and call my bank.
- b) Send my bank details to an email that could be fake.

6- You get a text saying a delivery failed, but you didn't order anything. What is it likely to be?

- a) A fake message trying to trick you
- b) A real message

7- The email has a link that asks you for lots of information. The page looks strange. What should you do?

- a) Just type what the page is asking for.
- b) Show the email to someone you trust and ask their opinion

Now it's time to find out how you did! Here come the answers...

Answers

1. True or false: Some emails are fake to trick people into sharing important information like their bank details.

True! Some emails are fake!

You must always double-check emails that ask you to pay something.

Always ask for help when you are not sure about something.

2. True or False: It is ok to share bank passwords with friends and other people.

False! You should not share your bank details and passwords with anyone.

3. Yes or No: Someone online says you won a prize, but you never signed up for it. Should you click on the link?

No! Do not click on the link! Many times links that say you won something are fake.

Answers

4. Yes or No: I got a message saying that I need to pay for my parcel to be delivered to me. Should I pay?

No! People do not need to pay to receive a parcel. This is a fake message!

5-You get an email asking for your bank details. What should you do?

a) Delete the email, find my bank's number on google and call my bank.

b) Send my bank details to an email that could be fake.

6-You get a text saying a delivery failed, but you didn't order anything. What is it likely to be?

a) A fake message trying to trick you

b) A real message

Answers

7- The email has a link that asks you for lots of information. The page looks strange. What should you do?

a) Just type what the page is asking you for.

b) Show the email to someone you trust and ask their opinion.

Learn more about staying safe online. Go to www.include.org for more Easy Read quizzes like this one!

Click here to read our Easy Read document about fake emails, fake calls and messages.

The End!

🎉 Well done, you've reached the end of the Quiz!
How did you do?